HON. CELSO CEASAR MORENO.

CELSO CEASAR MORENO.

Celso Ceasar Moreno is no doubt the best known and the finest specimen in the modern Italian and American civilization.

He was a native of Dogliani Province of Cuneo, and was born in the year of 1831, in Piedmont, in Northern Italy.

He is a distinguished gentleman, a scholar, orator, writer, diplomat and statesman.

He has traveled a great deal in his life and is well acquainted with the geography of the world. He was prime minister and ambassador of the Sultan of the Island of Sumatra in Asia and subsequently of the kingdom of the Hawaiian Islands in Oceania.

He is a famous Polyglot explorer, botanist; intrepid and scientific navigator, having navigated on all the most remote seas of the two hemispheres. Was Commodore Moreno, who, in the year 1879, commanded the first Chinese fleet of steamships to cross the wide Pacific ocean from the port of Canton in China to the Phillipine islands, to the Hawaiian islands and to California on the Western shores of America; a new and bold act in the history of the antique and slow Empire of China.

He is the projector of the Trans-Pacific Cable across the Pacific ocean, and its islands for uniting the two great continents of Asia and America, which is the last link of 6850 geogrgphical miles needed for encircling the whole world with submarine cables and territorial electric wires. The bill for such a gigantic project is now for discussion before the United States Congress—the Senate and the House of Representatives.

He is the promoter of the bill before the United States Congress since the year 1885 for a National Monument to the great Italian Navigator, Christopher Columbus, from Genoa, the superb city of his birth.

C. C. Moreno is the author of the humane bill, in the United States Congress since the year 1873 for the abolition of the nefarious Italian slavery in

They Say.

Life is what you make it.

Be what you seem to be and nothing more.

All that glitters is not gold.

Are the Negroes cowards or are they men?

Disappointments are for us all.

Prof. H. M. Brown ought to be principal of the High School.

Your friends very often place your enemies in position of power and trust.

They then expect you to ward off the blows of the adversary.

Always look out for those who never fail to elevate you.

Some men are influenced against you by your enemies.

Right is bound to prevail.

The truth crushed to the earth will raise again.

Col. M. M. Holland is a candidate for register of deeds.

There are others.

Never give up an old friend for a new one.

Be manly as well as honest in your dealings with your fellow man.

It is the great man who never stoops to small things.

The Negro question is a hard thing to solve.

Some people are on all sides of the fence.

There are some manly colored attorneys before the District bar.

Some editors have an idea that the great colored leaders have been retired.

Some people will be mistaken.

Some people have an idea that they can not elect a president without the colored vote.

We are mistaken some times when we think we know it all.

It is unkind to betray a friend.

We should be positive as well as manly.

The best colored sporting writer is Jesse K. Roy.

It is the brave man who will defend honor.

Do you want a first class bicycle?

Call and see Douglass, 11th and R streets northwest.

We lose confidence in our best friends some times.

We often return to our first love.

Never elevate an enemy to the detriment of your friends.

Honest politicians will never betray a friend.

There is honor among thieves.

Why can not there be honor among politicians?

The greatest men are those who do great deeds.

It is wrong to dislike a person because others do.

Speak well of a person, when he abuses you.

Always hear both sides of all questions.

A wise judge is not guided by his prejudices.

A corrupt judge will take bribes.

All judges are not corrupt.

The Negro is his own enemy.

Pete Meredith always attends to his own business.

The genial Otway Holmes will give a great excursion on the 12th.

All the boys will be there.

Marriage is a failure remarked the man with fifty wives.

There are others who think so.

There will be fifty hundred applicants for the recorder's office.

What fools these mortals be.

Be sure you are right, then go ahead.

THE BEE has the largest bona fide circulation of any paper in the country.

Every honest person reads THE BEE.

It takes the lead in Negro journalism.

There will be many disappointed next year.

THE WEEK OF DEATH.

We have already discussed the continuous method of death that would follow the destruction of defenseless lives by murder.

We have already consented to as harsh a method of death for him, as he inflicted upon the girl; so the reader will see that this is not the line of argument presented.

It is not to revoke eternity's claim in her case, not to tame the character of human wrath in his; but our purpose is, to suggest a method that will preclude the necessity of warning.

1st. We do not deal with these cases of recent brutal murders, as against Afro-Americans, on terms of social evil with the whites, as white girls and woman have lived with Afro-Americans for more than three hundred years; but we discuss the crime on general principles.

Nor are we trying to keep races separate, that have a mixture of affinity that has existed through compulsory amalgamation since 1634.

We can not make a distinct separation of what is a natural mixture, but can suggest a method of consistency that will be a preventative of death for all coming times.

The righteous manner with which the dailies have dealt with these crimes is silently expressive of the same conviction which actuate our expressions openly.

Therefore, let the girls profit by this borrowed expression; that they "can fool some of the people all the time, all of the people some time, but can never fool all the people all the time."

Let them too, remember, that Afro-American men kill Afro-American girls, and white men kill white girls for the same reason. Now, that the races are already mixed, and complexions have nothing to do with the character of crimes, we must expect that Afro-American men will kill white girls upon the same general principles

2d. The straightness of a girl's life that places her above suspicion, will entitle her to universal sympathy, and her brutish murderer to the severest method of death that a horrified community might unitedly see fit to inflict.

3d. White men, who are as willing as others, are ready to lynch Afro-Americans for the inimical fun that they find in it, ought also remember, that they have so long taught the harmless attitude of race mixture by centuries of amalgamation with Afro-American women, until Afro-American men and white women, have adopted the same irrevocable affinity, except by death as complained of in these recent cases.

We decline to discuss the method of death that the culprit or miserable wretch should die, since the recognized method is established by law, and the lawless method is a sanctioned assumption; but we simply demand a speedy death for every cruel murderer.

Everybody accepts the testimony of James Smith concerning his relation with and destruction of Marguerite Drown by murder, therefore, we demand an undelayed trial and sure death, free from any sympathy for the culprit.

Let James immediately follow Marguerite, as he did not feel to go with her as did Andrew with Bertha.

A BOGUS ORGANIZATION.

There is a bogus organization started in this town to the effect that the managers will control all the Afro American papers in this country.

They have issued a circular letter, and on the letter is printed two names, as officers, to-wit: Mr. Blank manager and Blank secretary and treasurer.

It is a bogus organization to fool the McKinley and Bryan managers. It is a scheme to fool certain Negro editors and blind ex-office holders who will be looking for a fat job if Major McKinley is elected.

Washington is famous for deadbeats and crafty money sharks.

CHAIRMAN HANNA SET DOWN ON COL. PERRY CARSON OF WASHINGTON, D. C.

From the Colored Enterprise.

Col. Perry Carson, Washington, D. C., who has been a member of the national executive committee for quite awhile, has been relieved of his honorary position, and ask to assume an humble position among the humble politicians of his vicinity. This setting down was the work of Mr. Hanna, the Chairman of the National Republican Committee. His reasons for setting Mr. Carson upon a common level was that he opposed the nomination of McKinley. Whether Mr. Hanna acted with discretion in this matter, we could not say. We are personally acquainted with Mr. Carson, and say that he is a man of thought and natural ability. It is true, he is an uneducated gentleman—really unable to do his own reading and writing with accuracy so as to be creditably understood.

Mr. Hanna did not remove Mr. Carson from the committee. The two district delegates could not agree. Mr. Carson had been on the committee for 12 years, and he wanted it for 12 more years, but, Mr. Gleason could not be influenced to agree to that, but would agree to select any one else named by Mr. Carson, but he would not agree on Mr. Carson, hence the Executive Committee had the power to appoint, and through Senator Proctor, of Vermont, Mr. M. M. Parker of this city, was appointed. Mr. Carson had nothing whatever to do with the appointment of Mr. Parker, at St. Louis, where Mr. Parker filed the petition to take away district representation. Mr. Carson was the man to denounce him, and before the appointment was made Mr. Carson said that he did not want Mr. Parker to serve. Mr. Hanna did not romove Mr. Carson.

SENATOR BRUCE'S ASSURANCE.

The press dispatches from Canton, Ohio in speaking of Ex-Senator Bruce's visit to Major Wm. McKinley, Jr., among other things Mr. Bruce informed Major McKinley that the colored voters through out the country would support him. Senator Bruce is a far-seeing and an astute politician, but THE BEE is of the opinion that the colored republicans throughout this country are not satisfied with the manner in which they are being ignored, and if something is not done at once there will not be enough colored voters left in the republican party to say that they ever belonged to that party.

It may be that the republican managers don't want the colored vote any more than the democratic managers. Thus far we have seen no overtures made to secure the colored vote, but, we do see every effort made to concentrate the white vote from all parties and organizations.

German documents are being sent out, Dutch, the French, and other kind of documents, and an effort will be made to subsid ze the Italian Press, and every other kind of press except the Afro-American press.

IS THE AFRO-AMERICAN WANTED?

This is the question for Afro-Americans to discuss when the editor of this paper publishes the reply of Major McKinley, in reply to his letter of July 17th, and received a few days ago.

There will be no middle grounds for the Afro-American to take. He must show his manhood or say that he is still the serf and slave.

We have received Major McKinley's reply to our letter, and it is a great document.

We await Mr. Bryan's reply.

POLITICAL FICTION.

BY PRIMROSE.

Mr. Hughes, of the expected Columbia Echo, is studying the free silver problem.

Mr. James A. Ross, the political talking machine, has lately been discovered on the globe in Buffalo.

Col. Wm. Lamb, of Norfolk, Va., is greatly displeased with the Hon. M. A. Hanna, about the committee appointment in that state.

Mr. John Mitchell, Jr., of Richmond, says that "lynch law must go," but the people in old Marylank think differently.

Chairman Jones requested Mr. Watson to speak in Alabama last week, but he positively declined.

The big guns of the campaign are beginning to rise in Washington for the purpose of loading and prinking themseves for the battle in November.

Mr. Bryan gives a little talk to the correspondents nearly every night. He is consistent if not cute. He wont keep silent because silence is golden.

That man, who pumps up his bicycle tires, is in favor of inflation for the common circulative medium.

Another circumstance that makes this year's performance on the political stage additionally interesting is the double bill.

So long as things go right nobody could have anything but good to say of the trolly party as a kind of middle-of-the-road organization.

Argument is as useless with some Populists as pouring facts into the ears of corn, or demonstrating truth to the eyes of potatoes.

Possibly it was wise for the Madison Square Garden managers to get indemnity bonds over that coming ratification meeting, as Mr. Bryan threatens to bring down the house.

In the present season of forest flames, a statement that the silver craze is going to run over the earth like wild fire is calculated to scare lots of democrats in the woods.

Many democrats do not expect a picnic, but it is a party in the woods.

It is probable, however, that while silverites have engaged Madison Square Garden, the management will refuse to plant it exclusively in daisies.

It is an old saying that two heads are better than one, and Mr. Bryan is now in a position to say something about two tails.

Because the farmers have the soil does not altogether justify the Populists in claiming the earth.

Mrs. Lease says she is going to throw herself into the front of the battle. Remembering how women throw, it will be fun to see the performance.

Both sides admit that they will have to fight to win. Still, a close shave will not be a remarkable event to either candidate.

In writing his letter of acceptance, Mr. Bryan will not only disdain using a gold pen, but it wont be even gilt-edged paper.

As a matter of fact, the vote of this country will be less effected by the Hon. Hoke Smith's conduct than by what John does.

They say the republican literary bureaus are delivering financial tracts to a considerable exclusion of tariff arguments, for it hardly does seem the weather for woolen articles.

It is rumored that Tom Watson has made up his mind to do his batting in the second inning.

Postmaster General Wilson's orders to his subordinates to keep clear of politics came a little too late. The Chicago convention is a thing of the past.

In order to be sure, Mr. Bryan will carry a part of his audience with him to New York next week.

Alabama was the first to lead off in a bad state of a mixed up election. The ballot box stuffing party came out victorious.

One Joseph H. Jackson of this city should go to Maryland and vote before writing any letters.

CELSO CEASAR MORENO.

America, which philanthropic action has made the name and person of C. C. Moreno, the Italian patriot, highly respected and beloved by the American people, irrespective of classes, races, colors and religions. He, for over three decades, has been highly esteemed by the most prominent men in America, such as Presidents Johnson, Grant, Garfield, Cleveland, and now McKinley, Sumner, Gresham, Blaine, Bayard, Gray, Morgan, Sherman, Rosecrans, Foster, Reed, Greeley, Dana, Bennett, Negley, Sargent, Mitchell, Cameron, Jones, Douglass, Milton Sayler, Logan and many others, and enjoyed the warm friendship of all.

He is the most prominent and influential Italian in America. He is a man of vast and classic erudition of iron will, tenacity, energy and audacity, without fear and without reproach and always in the front rank for action with a generous heart toward the feeble, unprotected and defenseless as they are the unfortunate Italian slaves of both sexes and of all ages on this vast continent of America. Italy is badly governed at home and worse represented abroad.

Italy needs a noble, able, patriotic, fearless, energetic, prompt and a superior man of the world for her ambassador in America in order to destroy the many evils which torment the Italians in America, to punish the numerous evil-doers, to promote a better order of things, and to restore the former prestige to the glorious Italian name on this side of the Atlantic. We know no other man better fitted for such a difficult task than C. C. Moreno. He stands to-day the equal of any man and the superior of many,

If there ever was a true, honest and upright man, it is this Italian-American, He has more influence with the Italians and Americans in this country than any other man. It is because he can be trusted. They look to him as their Moses.

When a man conducts himself so that he can be trusted he is a great man. Celso Ceasar Moreno is that man. W. CALVIN CHASE.

IT IS JUST THE BEGINNING.

(From the Republican Advocate.)

It seems strange that Negroes like Langston, Bruce, Lynch and Cuney are not heard of now-a-days in the councils of the Republican party, even Perry H. Carson, for years the representative of the party of the District of Columbia, on the national committee, has been turned down. Is this the beginning of the end?

IS THE COLORED VOTE FOR McKINLEY.

EX-SENATOR BRUCE ASSURES HIM IT IS.

CANTON, O., Aug. 3.—Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce, of Mississippi, was one of the callers on Major McKinley today. He is familiar with the political situation throughout the South and thinks Major McKinley will carry Virginia, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and Kentucky, said he:

"It will be found that the Democratic politician in the Southern States has until recently been able to keep the South solid. Hereafter the progressive elements of the South will take such action as will advance the material prosperity of that section. They want a protective tariff that will build up that section that will invite the manufacturers, and do for the States what it has done for the great North, East and West. They look upon Major McKinley as the apostle of protection.

"They also want sound money instead of depreciated silver dollars and they regard Major McKinley as the embodiment of that idea also. The colored voters of the country, both North and South, are enthusiastically supporting Major McKinley. They know him to be their friend. There has not been a single issue touching the rights of the colored people for the last quarter of a centnry in which he has not shown his interest in their behalf."

There is ample reason for the belief that Mr. Bruce, himself a representative colored man, has not overestimated the interest of his race in Major McKinley. A mass of correspondence from the Southern and Middle States, which has been received in Canton since the St. Louis convenlion, indicates with clearness that the colored voters are disposed to be loyal supporters of the Republican ticket.

LEAVES THE REPUBLICAN PARTY.

A COLORED REPUBLICAN EDITOR GOES OVER TO BRYAN.

James H. Young, Editor of the Raleigh Gazette, published in N. C., one of the most brilliant colored Republican representatives in the South, has left the Republican party and gone over to the Democratic party. The Gazette has been one of the leading Republican organs in the State.

The colored Enterprise reports an interview with ex-Mayor H. S. Hawkins, who is reported to have said that it would be a good thing if all the negroes went to the Democratic party as more white men would join the Republican party.

THE BEE would suggest that Mr. Bruce inform Mr. McKinley in his next interview that he made a mistake about all the negroes are satisfied. Mr. Bruce as well as Mr. McKinley will find out, that they are both mistaken.

OUR COLONIAL BEACH.

DR. LAWS IS THE ORATOR OF THE DAY AT COLONIAL BEACH. HE IS INTRODUCED TO 5000 PEOPLE WHO GIVES "THE BEE" AND THE ASSOCIATE A HEARTY WELCOME.

Rev. R. S. Laws, one of the associate editors of THE BEE and the South Washington manager, left the city last week to fill his angagement as orator of the day in Virginia

We left Washington, the National Capital at 7 a. m., on Saturday, the 25th, on July, and passing in full view of the Arsenal, the well-hedged National Park, on the Potomac Flats, the new Post Office and Washington Monument, we reached Alexandria, where we impatiently waited one hour for the freight ladeners.

Here we were joined by a minister, G. O. Dixon, of Alexandria, and Captain Geo. H. Seldon, of Mt. Hellon, West Moreland Co., Va. Continuing our route, the stoppages and views almost indescribable. The described points in our observation, were River View, Fort Washington, Indian Head, the Governmental testing reservation for war articles; Free Stone Point, Glymount, Marshall Hall, Liverpool Point, Clifton Beach, Stiff's Wharf, Stewart's Wharf, Maryland Point Light House, Swan Point, Cobin Point, Nomini Cliff, Lower Cedar Point, Wilkinson Wharf, and Colonial Beach. Here, upon our arrival, at the newly founded watering place, we were met by the Rev. James Watts, Pastor of the Monroria Baptist Church, located within two miles of the Beach, where the Saturday session and other business and Sunday introductory sermon was preached by the writer, the invited orator for Monday session, who preached from the 27:4 Psalms, subject, the thing most desirable.

Docks, pavilions, booths and boats, were all placed to the pleasing disposal of the committee including the spacious premises of the Woods Hotel. Dinner, lunches, confectioneries and other refreshments, added greatly to the financial necessity.

Buggies and other vehicles stood by the hundreds on the grounds, and pleasure seekers scattered in every direction. The votes which awarded the silk umbrella to Rev. C. C. Washington, of West Moreland, numbered 174, which were 46 more than any other.

COLONIAL BEACH.

This for position and appearance is destined to become one of the most beautiful places of all watering places in the South.

Its water front covers three miles of the river that has a view of eleven miles, and extend two miles back from the shore, with one of the most attractive race tracks in the country.

Its spaciously modern hotels, and beautifully arranged cottages, its fine streets and avenues, and gangways along the river front, are all evidences of one of the most perfect beginnings.

Its opportunity given to Afro-American citizens to buy handsome lots 50 by 150 feet, and their good judgment in the purchase of a church lot 100x150 is another evidence of an all around local improvement,

Their municipality, with Mayor S. D. Watson, and his sergeants and privates, and a common council of four members, satisfy the general public, that local protection as well as improvements are assured.

One of its most perfect citizens is Deacon George Smith of Monrovia Baptist church, age 70 years, who became a land owner in 1869, and owns 107 acres of President of the United States James Monroe. He was first married to Miss Annie Watts, daughter of the late Rev. Emanuel Watts, in 1839, with whom he happily lived for 57 years, where they had 16 children, born to them, 6 of whom died and the other 10—Henson, Peggie, Maggie, Kate, Geo. A., Fred., Hattie, John, Jennie, Henry B., and Sarah, are still living, and with exceptions of Johnny and Jennie they are all grown.

He is an active, practical carpenter and builder, and is a contractor for more than one half of the best work done at Colonia Beach. He was again wedded to Mrs. Lucinda Smith, a widow, from Culpepper county, in 1893, and their lives are that of happiness.

He was not only the first Afro-American to purchase property in the county, but owned the first horse and buggy.

His great age and wealth, common sense and general iuformation, make him the model man of the whole county.

At 2 p. m., the Casino was thrown open. The President, Rev. J. A. A. Cyrus, stood on the beautiful lawn and announced that the Rev. R. S. Laws, D. D., of Pennsylvania, the religious and associate editor of THE WASHINGTON BEE, at the National Capital, and a man who stands the equal of any in the race for ability, as well as oratory, is on the grounds and will at this time deliver the oration, as the committee's choice for the occasion.

Accompanied by C. Stewart and the master of ceremonies for the day, he entered the Casino, where besides the crowded Casino, there sat fifty representative men of the thirteenth anniversary upon the platform.

Here, the Rev. J. H. A. Cyrus, president and master of ceremonies, introduced Dr. Laws, of THE BEE, who delivered the oration. His address was masterly and was loudly applauded during its deliverance. Over three hundred people subscribed for THE BEE.

Our ministers by whose presence the occasion was honored. Besides President J. H. A. Cyrus and the pastor of the Monrovia church, with which the Union met, there were Revs. C. C. Washington, S. Garland, L, Marshall, Zed Gaines, J. W. Bird.

The order and amount of collection, $103.67. On Saturday, $10.67. On Sunday, $17, and on Monday, $76.

HE IS FROM OHIO.

HOW IT WILL BE IF MAJOR MCKINLEY IS ELECTED.

In the event Major McKinley is elected the applicants for offices from Ohio will be too numerous to fill the White House pigeon-holes.

When Mr. Garfield was president, Ohioians monopolized the departments.

It was only necessary for a man to say he was from Ohio, and in a few days he was placed in a good fat job. A man called to see Mr. Garfield when he was president with a letter of introduction from a Senator, Mr. Brown, who was then private secretary, informed the messenger that the president could not see him.

The man waited in the hall way several of the Executive Mansion several hours with the hope of seeing the president. A thought struck him that the Senator failed to state that he was from Ohio.

He returned to the messenger again and presented his card, Mr——, Cleveland, Ohio.

The messenger presented his card and no quicker presented, he was ushered in to the president.

Ah, said the president, this is the man from Ohio? What can I do for you?

In a few days he was sent abroad.

A GOOD WOMAN GONE.

Mrs. Helen E. Watkins, who died July 26 and buried July 28, was the daughter of that old veteran, Rev. Sandy Alexander, better known as the father of the Baptists.

Mrs. Watkins was a most amiable lady, who had the respect and confidence of a large circle of friends.

The Baptist Ministers' Union turned out in a body, as did the pupils she taught.

Rev. J. Anderson Taylor, the eloquent pulpit orator, delivered a most impressive sermon.

He spoke feelingly of her moral worth and eloquently of her excellent and womanly qualities.

The body was interred in Harmony cemetery.

POINTERS.

EENA: You are too sensitive to say you are overlooked because your occupation is absurd. People are and should be liked socially for what they are and the pleasant little things they can do, and not for what they do.

It is hard for a stingy conniving person to succeed. If one can not be generous otherwise, be generous with pleasant words, and by showing an interest in whatever is going on.

The great fault most of our girls make is to speak of their occupation either directly or indirectly the moment they meet a stranger. Strangers are not interested in ones private affairs, and it is very impolite to bring it up then. One makes himself very unpopular by continually speaknig of another's poverty and continualy speaking of his own riches.

MARIE: If you wish to keep a good social standing, you must be careful, with whom you associate and by no means be caught with a person whose character is questionable.

Beware of new acquaintances who are familar and over-confidential. No one should confide in strangers.

WIDOW: When a woman is being married the second time, she should have every-thing as dignified as possible. She should of course have no brides maids, nor should she wear white or a wedding veil.

Don't be of the opinion that you know more than any one else, for it makes you appear affected or silly.

Some people are of the opinion that if they can't do a thing no one else can. They seem to forget the fact that some people have three talents while others only have one.

MAUD: You should pay more attention to your business and less to young and giddy men, if you want to hold your position.

A. E.: No real gentleman will accompany a lady on the cars, or to a place of amusement without bearing all the expenses. If he has not the money he will not undertake to escort you. You should give the young man to understand that you are looking for some one who can provide for you, at least, as well as you are or can provide for yourself.

It is the independent girl who succeeds. Men are peculiar, they care mostly for the girl whose admirers are many.

MARIE: As you can conveniently see your friend, write to him often. From your description of him, I think he will make a model husband. A man who is good to mother, is very apt to be good to a wife.

DORA: The young man has been calling entirely too long. You were perfectly right to engage your-self to mother. Delays are dangerous.

The noblest work that any girl can do, is that which best fits her to be a help and comfort to her mother.

C. W.: There is no reason why you cannot invite the gentleman you met at the meeting, to your boarding house to supper, since he was an old acquaintance of yours and a stranger in that part of the country. Of course you would offer to pay the hostess for courtesies to your guests.

WILLENA: I am sure the dear boy left grieved to leave you. It is not necessary for you to loose confidence in him because he is away. An honest women is said to be a jewel, hence be true.

I hope none of my girls will express the desire, when going away, of having a young man to write to them. He should ask the privelege of doing so.

CHUM: Thanks for your interesting letter. I agree with you in saying no girl should marry just for the sake of a good home. Love should be the foundation of all marriages, or else divorces are bound to take place.

B. B.: Tight lacing is very injurious. You should think more of your health.

CARRIE: I see no impropriety in a girl of twenty years marrying a man of forty-three. Very often old men make better husbands than the young, frivivous men of today. When a man is in his forties, he is not considered old.

What I do dislike, is to see "old girls" associating with young girls, so as to make themselves appear young. They seem to forget the fact that it makes them appear older.

When a gentleman is presented to a lady who is setting down, she merely bows and does not rise. It is not inappropriate to thank a gentleman for the little courtesies he shows you. Some women drive away good men by not appreciating their kindness.

Be kind and true to those you know are honest.

Never disturb a friend except you have a reason for so doing.

Think of those who are dearest to you.

Delivery Horse badly used up. Cured by
MUSTANG LINIMENT.
Read letter below.

MR. JOHN H. FISHER.

NEW BERNE, N. C., Feb. 26, 1895.

Lyon Manufacturing Co., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Gentlemen:—Our delivery horse was so badly stove up in his fore leg and shoulder that we could not use him. After using Mexican Mustang Liniment on him I found that it completely cured him and left him in the best of condition. I think there is a good deal in applying the Liniment properly. I bathed the swollen parts with warm water and castile soap. Then I applied MEXICAN MUSTANG LINIMENT freely, rubbing it in thoroughly, and my horse was all right in two weeks. Yours truly, JOHN H. FISHER, Grocer, 117 Broad St.

Hillsdale Happenings.

Mrs. Harriet Ann Dixon, the beloved wife of Jas. M. Dixon, departed this life, Aug. 1, in the 64th year of her age. She was born in Prince William Co., Va., in 1832 and for more than forty years had shared the joys and sorrows of the stricken widower. She was buried at 3 o'clock last Monday afternoon from the Bethlehem Baptist Church, of which she was a consistent member for many years. Rev. Jos. Matthews, preached the funeral sermon from a text most appropriate to the occasion. Sister Dixon was highly esteemed by the entire community and much beloved by her fellow communicants. She lived strong in Christian faith and died the death of the righteous. The immense throng which gathered to witness the last sad rites over her remains testified to the place she held in the hearts of her many friends. Messrs. David Simpson, Peyton Johnson, Peyton Scott and Jno. H. Anderson, were the pall-bearers. She leaves four children to comfort their father in his great affliction. Interment was at Moore's burying ground.

Our sister has entered the realms ot the blest,
Where her earth-wearied spirit forever may rest.

C. W. D.

Mrs. Harriet Ferguson who died at her residence, Aug. 1, was buried from Allen Chapel, Good Hope, D. C., Monday, Aug. 3, at 3 p. m. She lived near Mrs. Dixon and died within a few hours of her.

Miss Annie Phillips, a teacher in one of the Maryland schools, is at home for the summer.

The Hillsdale Bicycle Club, is actively preparing for the forth-coming bicycle parade. They intend to make a fine showing.

The latest addition to our corps of lady riders, is Miss A. Alexander, the teacher.

Mrs. L. C. Brown, of this village, has entered as a student at Bryant & Stratton business college, in Chicago, Ill. She will correspond for the BEE during the season.

The method of representing the titles of the lessons in the Primary Quarterly, by their initial letters, is said to have been first used in this village, by S. S. Supt., C. W. Davis. For the benefit of those who do not use these publications we present the letters of the lessons in full. Lesson 1, D. K. of J.; 2, D. K. A. I.; 3, A. B. T. J.; 4, G. D. T. D.; 5, D. K.; 6, D. V.; 7, D. C. A. F.; 8, A. R.; 9, A. D. A. D.; 10, D. L. F. G. H.; 11, D. G. T. G.; 12, D. V.

The teachers' meeting of Bethelem S. S., was held last Wednesday, evening. The lesson was thoroughly prepared and many interesting points elicited.

These meetings are held on Wednesday of each week.

Mrs. C. W. Davis was last week the recipient of a beautiful oil painting, presented by Miss Tillie Wheeler. The picture is beautifully framed in gilt, and was painted by Miss Wheeler.

SECRET ORDERS.

EDITORIAL SYNOPSIS.

It seems like all fools are not dead yet. Now, in view of the fact that some of the intelligent cranks are doing the acts, I propose to beat fire with fire. As I said before some of our friends have scuttled the ship, and now they must go down with it. It is sinking, and unless the leak is caulked the ship will go down. Already the sword fish has pierced the hull, and the bottom has struck the snag. He who smokes Spanish tobacco knows something next week. There will appear the great article, headed "The Masonic Order—Its Divisions, and Sub-Divisions." There are lots of men in masonry who wear great masonic jewels, and know no more about them than a fly. I am now reaping the position of instructor in the mystic art. I propose before I am through to teach you all something that you do not know. The half has not been told. Wait until my book of fairy tales and ghost stories makes its appearance. I told you to be good and you would not, so look out for the cyclone.

Watch for the great article, which will appear next week on "Free Masonry—Its Divisions, and Sub-Diyisions." It will be a continued article.

It will pay the intelligent Mason to read the same, because it will teach them something. (Down with monkey business.) Stop the knife. It does not pay. All the trouble has been caused by monkey business. Dirt and rascality on the part of a certain set of monkey monks, who will in due time break up everything in their efforts to get revenge whenever the supplies are cut off. Why, we get mad. The fancy prices are broken up. Cut rates rule now.

I told you all to be good and you won't listen. Now, I am tired of playing the indulgent, and I will now forthwith apply the rod. You have needed a good whipping to my personal knowledge for the last eight or ten years, and out of mercy I have refrained, but not being a relative of Job, the die is cast. Had my advice been followed things to-day would be different, but oh, no, what we did fifty years ago will not do now. You shall not play in my back yard. I am there and you shall not get there, unless you get down and kiss my feet. Now, all of this is monkey business, when you ask about the money part. Young man you have nothing to do with the money, etc. You young men are too fast. As I said before I am in the fight to stay and don't you forget it.

The boy who was without a light and playing with a number of other children from 6 to 12 years old, disclaimed any injury to the delight of his antagonist. The Rev. The sentence and imprisonment of Laura Buckner. The righteousness of the law having demanded an equitable adjustment of its claims, there was nothing left but the imprisonment of the offender. To violate the Sunday law, is a double crime, and resist the civil or criminal prosecution of the offender is still worse If we can burn out the eyes of one officer, we can burn out the eyes of any or all; so we will uphold the law, and punished the offender, in or out of office.
